It may perhaps be sufficient to state here, that the Coptic Version of the Scriptures was made at a very early period of the Christian era.

This Version of the Old Testament, like all the other ancient Versions of it, was made from the Greek Text, and not from the original Hebrew.

The Coptic Version of the Book of Job is now for the first time presented to the public, through the medium of the press. It has been printed from a separate Manuscript of that Book, in Coptic and Arabic in parallel columns, as far as Chap. xix. v. 23, where the Arabic ceases. This was copied, while I was in Egypt, from an ancient one in the Patriarch's library in Cairo. I afterwards collated it, while in Malta, in June 1839, with an old Manuscript in Coptic, belonging to the Rev. Mr. Schleinz ; and I have since collated it with another ancient Manuscript in Coptic, without an Arabic translation, kindly presented to me by Lord Prudhoe, since my return from Egypt. I therefore believe the text is as perfect as Manuscripts would enable me to make it. A few errors which are left in the text, uncorrected by the other Manuscripts, I have noticed in the margin.

Ms. A. 9. 40

I now send forth the work to the public, in the earnest hope that the remaining parts of the text of the Coptic Version of the Scriptures will be preserved in the same way, for the future benefit of the Coptic Church, by whom it is acknowledged as their standard Version. I also feel assured, that its value and importance will be appreciated by the Biblical Critic and Divine.

I trust the English translation, which is as literal as it could be made, will be found throughout the volume to speak faithfully the sense of the original.

H. TATTAM.

THE BOOK OF JOB THE JUST.

CHAP. I.

1. THERE was a certain man dwelling in the land of Ausid, whose name was Job; and that man was true, blameless, and godly, and abstained from all evil.

2. And he had seven sons, and three daughters.

3. And his cattle were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses in the pastures, and many servants, and he had great works upon the earth; and that man was the richest of those who dwelt in the East.

4. And his sons came together daily; they drank together in the house of their eldest brother, taking with them also their three sisters, that they might eat and drink with them.

5. And when the days of the feast were completed, Job sent unto his herds, to take thence a calf, that he might offer it for their souls: for Job said, lest my sons should have thought evil in their hearts towards God: thus therefore Job did continually.

6. And the day came, when the angels of God came to stand before the Lord, and the devil came also with them, and stood upon the earth, and passed over it.

7. And the Lord said to the devil, whence hast thou come? and the devil answered and said, I have gone over all the earth, and have searched under heaven, and I am here.

8. And the Lord said to him, hast thou considered in thy heart my servant Job, that there is none like him among those who dwell upon the earth: he is true, blameless, and godly: who hath abstained from all evil?

9. And the devil said before the Lord, does Job worship the Lord for naught?

10. Hast thou not been a fence to his possessions? and blessed the things which are within, and those which are without his house, and all which he hath round about? Thou hast blessed the works of his hands, and made his cattle to increase upon the earth.

11. But put forth thy hand, and touch all that he hath, that we may see if he will bless thee to thy face?

12. Then the Lord said to the devil, that which he hath I deliver to thee, and his flesh, but thou shalt not have power over his life: and the devil went out from the Lord.

13. And it came to pass on a certain day, that the sons of Job, and his daughters, were drinking wine in the house of their elder brother.

14. And behold a messenger came to Job, and said, the yokes of oxen were ploughing, and the she asses were feeding near them ;

15. And the captors came and took them for a prey, and slew the servants with the sword ; and I alone have escaped, and have come to tell thee.

16. While he was yet speaking, another messenger came, and said to Job, fire came out of heaven, and hath burnt up the sheep, and devoured the shepherds likewise ; and I alone have escaped, and have come to tell thee.

17. While he was yet speaking another messenger came, and said to Job, the horsemen made three companies * against us, and surrounded the camels, and took them for a prey, and slew the servants with the sword ; and I alone have escaped, and have come to tell thee.

18. While he was yet speaking, another messenger came, and said to Job, while thy sons and daughters were eating and drinking in the house of their elder brother ;

19. Suddenly a great wind came from the desert, and caught † the four corners of the house, and the house fell upon thy children, and they are dead ; and I alone have escaped, and have come to tell thee.

20. So Job arose, and rent his garments, and shaved the hair of his head, and cast himself down and worshipped the Lord ;

21. And said, naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked I shall return ; the Lord gave them ; the Lord hath again taken them away ; as it pleased the Lord, so it came to pass ; let the name of the Lord be blessed.

22. In all these things which came upon him, Job sinned not at all before the Lord, and attributed not folly * to God.

CHAP. II.

1. AND it came to pass on a certain day, that the angels of God came to stand before the Lord ; and the devil came and stood in the midst of them.

2. And the Lord said to the devil, whence hast thou come ? then the devil said before the Lord, I have wandered about under heaven, and walked about upon the whole earth ; and I am here.

3. And the Lord said to him, hast thou observed in thy heart my servant Job, that there is not one like him upon the earth ; he is a man harmless, true, blameless, and who hath departed from all evil ? and still retains integrity : but thou hast spoken in vain to destroy his substance.

4. The devil answered, and said, skin for skin, all that the man hath will he give for his life.

5. Not so, but put forth thy hand, and touch his bones and his flesh, that we may see if he will bless thee to thy face.

---

* Coptic, ignorance.

6. And the Lord said to the devil, behold, I deliver him into thy hands ; yet preserve his life.

7. And the devil went out from the Lord, and smote Job with bad sores from his feet to his head.

8. And he took a potsherd and scraped off the discharge, and sat upon a dunghill without the city.

9. And when much time had passed, his wife said to him, how long dost thou sustain thyself, saying, behold, I shall be consumed in a little time, expecting the hope of my deliverance? for, behold, thy memorial is destroyed from the earth: my sons and daughters, the pains and the pangs of my womb, which I have suffered in vain, with sorrows; but thou sittest with vile worms, watching in the heat and dew: I also have become a wanderer, and a maid servant, going from place to place, and from house to house, waiting for the sun when he shall set, that I may rest from my labours, and my griefs which now surround me: but speak a word against the Lord, and die.

10. But he looked on her, and said, thou hast spoken as one of the foolish women. If we have recieved good things from the Lord, shall we not also endure evil things? In all these things, which came upon him, Job sinned not at all with his lips before the Lord.

19. The small and the great are there, and the servant who feared his Lord.

20. For why is light given to those in darkness ? or life to the souls which are in affliction ?

21. Who desire death and receive it not, digging for it as for treasures.

22. And they would rejoice if they should obtain it.

23. Death is rest to a man, for God hath shut him in.

24. Groaning cometh before food ; I will weep, fear hath taken hold of me.

25. For the fear which I dreaded has come upon me, and that which I feared has happened to me.

26. I have not had peace, neither have I had quiet, nor have I had rest ; for wrath hath come upon me.

29. Sit down therefore, and let us not be unjust, and agree* again with the just.

30. For there is no injustice in my tongue: is it not understanding which my throat meditateth?

CHAP. VII.

1. Is not the life of man a state of trial upon earth? and his life as a daily hireling?

2. Or as a servant fearing his master, who hath followed a shadow?† or as a hireling expecting his hire?

3. So I also have suffered‡ for months in vain: nights of pain have been appointed to me.

4. When I lie down, I say, When will it be morning? again, when I rise, I say, When will the sun set? and I am full of pain from evening until morning.

5. My body§ is polluted with nauseous worms, and my filthy corruptions are wasted away to dust: I scrape my sores.

6. And my life is swifter than a discourse, and has perished in a vain hope.

7. Remember therefore that my life is breath, and will not return to see the good of mine eyes.

* The Arabic is احكموا, give judgment.

† The Arabic translation is يرقب اقل, will watch for, or observe an error.

‡ The Arabic is صبرت, I have endured, or been patient.

§ The common acceptation of the Coptic is, my bone: with which the Arabic عظمي agrees.

21. And why hast thou not forgotten mine iniquity, and cleansed my sin? but now I shall descend to the earth; and I shall early be no more.

CHAP. VIII.

1. BALDAD the Sauchite answered and said,

2. How long wilt thou speak in these words? how long shall the breath of much talking which is in thy mouth, remain in you?

3. Will the Lord who judges be unjust? or will he who made all things, disturb justice?

4. If thy children have sinned before thee, hath he sent their iniquities into thy hand?

5. But be thou early, praying to the Lord Almighty.

6. If thou art pure and true, he will hear thy prayer, and will give to thee a habitation of righteousness.

7. Therefore thy beginnings shall be small, but thy ends shall be without number.

8. For ask of a former generation, and search through the race of our fathers:

9. For we are of yesterday, and know not; for our life is a shadow upon the earth.

10. Shall not these teach thee, and declare to thee, and bring out words from thy heart?

11. Will the papyrus* grow up without water, or will the flag flourish without moisture?

12. While it is yet in its root they will not

CHAP. IX.

1. JOB answered and said,

2. Truly I know that it is so; for how can a man be just before the Lord?

3. For if he would contend with him in judgment, he will not answer him: so that he could not gainsay for one word of his of thousands.

20. For if I seem to be just, my mouth will be ungodly: for if I appear to be blameless, I shall come forth perverse.

21. For whether I have done impiously, I know not in my soul: but my life is taken away.

22. Therefore I said, he will destroy the great and the mighty in wrath.

23. For the wicked are wonderful in death; but the just are mocked.

24. For they are delivered into the hands of the ungodly: and he covers the faces of the judges: and if it be not he, who is it?

30. For if I should wash with snow, and cleanse myself with pure hands,

31. I have been dipped deeply in filth, and my garment hath abhorred me.

32. For thou art not a man like me, with whom I could contend, that we might come to judgment together.

33. Would that a mediator were present between us, reproving, and he should hear the cause between us both.

34. Let him take away his rod from me, and let not his fear trouble me :

35. Then I shall not be afraid, but I will speak : for I am not conscious thus of guilt.

CHAP. X.

1. BUT I am weary in my soul. I groan ; I will speak my words to him.

2. And I will say to the Lord, teach me not to be impious ; and wherefore hast thou judged me thus ?

3. Is it good to thee if I have done unjustly ? for thou hast rejected the works of thy hands, and hast attended to the counsel of the ungodly.

4. Hast thou also seen as man seeth ?

5. Or is thy life the life of man ? or are thy years the years of a man ?

6. For thou hast sought after mine iniquity, and searched out my sins.

7. For thou knowest that I have not done unjustly : but who is he that can deliver out thy hands ?

10. Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me as cheese ?

11. Thou hast clothed me with skin and hairs, and joined me together with bones and sinews.

12. And thou hast bestowed upon me life and mercy, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.

13. All these things are in me, and I know that thou art powerful in all things, and nothing is impossible with thee.

14. Therefore if I should sin, thou wilt observe me ; and thou hast not cleansed me from my iniquities.

15. Verily if I have sinned, woe to me : and if I be righteous I cannot lift up my head, for I am full of reproach.

16. For I am hunted as a lion for the slaughter ; again I have returned and thou hast afflicted me exceedingly.

17. Thou renewest my torture upon me : thou hast dealt with me in great anger, and thou hast brought trials upon me.

18. Why hast thou brought me from the womb, and I died not ? that no eye of man should see me,

19. And that I should be as one who hath not been ? Wherefore, when I came out of the womb, did I not depart to the tomb ?

20. Is not the time of my life short ? leave me alone that I may rest a little,

CHAP. XI.

1. SOPHAR the Minnæan answered and said,

2. He who speaketh many words should hear the answer : if he who speaketh many words thinketh that he is righteous, the short lived offspring of woman is blessed.

3. Be not abundant in thy words ; for no one is contending with thee.

4. Say not I am pure, and I am blameless before him.

5. O that the Lord would speak with thee, and would open his lips with thee !

6. Then would he make known to thee the power of wisdom ; for it will be double that which is with thee : then shalt thou know that some things have come to thee from the Lord, suitable to the sins which thou hast done.

7. Wilt thou find out the way of the Lord ? or hast thou come to the bounds of those things which the Almighty hath made ?

8. The heaven is high, what wilt thou do ? there are things deeper than those in hell ; what dost thou know of them ?

9. Or longer than the measure of the earth, or than the breadth of the sea.

10. If he should overthrow all things, who shall say to him, what hast thou done?

11. For he knoweth the works of the wicked; and when he seeth improper things, he will not disregard them.

12. But man is rashly buoyed up* with words; and man born of a woman is like a wild ass.

13. For if thou hast made thy heart pure, and wilt put off filthiness, and wilt not fear, and liftest up thy hands to him;

14. If there is any iniquity in thy hands, put it far from thee, and let not unrighteousness be in thy house.

15. For thus shall thy countenance shine as pure water; and thou shalt put off uncleanness, and shalt not fear.

16. Thou shalt forget the affliction, as water which hath passed by; and shalt not be troubled.

17. And thy prayer shall be as the morning star, and life shall flourish to thee as from the noon day.

18. Then thou shalt be confident, because thou hast hope; and peace shall be to thee out of noise and terror.

19. And thou shalt be quiet, and he who fighteth against thee shall not be found; and many shall turn, and supplicate to thee.

20. But safety shall forsake them; for destruction is their hope, and the eyes of ungodly shall waste away.

CHAP. XII.

1. JOB answered and said,
2. Then ye are men, and wisdom shall die with you.
3. Indeed I also have a heart like you.
4. For a just and blameless man hath become a derision.
5. For it hath been prepared for an appointed time, that he should fall under the power of others, and that transgressors should spoil his house: but let not any one who is evil trust that he shall be found pure.
6. All those who provoke the Lord, will not they also be enquired of?
7. But ask the beasts, if they may speak to thee; or the fowls of heaven, if they may declare to thee;
8. And tell to the earth, if it may speak to thee: and the fishes of the sea that they may declare to thee.
9. Who hath not known in all these things, that the hand of the Lord hath made them?
10. Are not the lives of all things living in his hands, and the spirit of every man?
11. For indeed the mind searcheth out words, and the throat tasteth meats.
12. Hath wisdom consisted in length of time, and knowledge been in a long life?
13. Wisdom and power have been with him, and his are counsel and understanding.

14. If he should overturn, who shall build ? if he should shut up against men, who shall open ?

15. If he should withhold the water, he will dry up the earth : and if he should send it out upon it, he will destroy that which he hath overthrown.

16. His are strength and power ; and his are knowledge and understanding.

17. He leadeth the counsellors captive, and astonishes the judges of the earth.

18. He hath placed kings upon thrones, and hath bound their loins with a girdle.

19. He sendeth the priests into captivity, and overthroweth the mighty ones of the earth.

20. He changeth the lips of the faithful, and he knoweth the understanding of the elders.

21. He poureth dishonour upon princes, and healeth the lowly.

22. He revealeth deep things out of the darkness : and he hath brought out into the light the shadow of death.

23. He causeth the nations to wander and destroyeth them : he overthroweth the nations, and leadeth them away.

24. He changeth the hearts of the princes of the earth, and hath caused them to wander in a way they have not known.

25. They shall group in darkness, and where there is no light ; and they shall wander as he who is drunken.

CHAP. XIII.

1. BEHOLD, mine eye hath seen these things, and mine ear hath heard them.

2. And I know also those things which ye know; and I am not without understanding more than you.

3. Nevertheless I will speak to the Lord, and I will reason before him, if he will.

4. But ye are unjust physicians, and healers of all evils.

5. But it shall come to pass, if ye will be silent, also wisdom will come to you.

6. Hear the reasoning of my mouth, and attend to the judgment of my lips.

7. Have ye not spoken before the Lord, and will ye not utter deceit before him speedily?

8. Or will ye be hid from him?

9. It were good if he would examine you: for if ye do all things that you may attach yourselves to him,

10. He will not reprove you in a small matter: but if ye respect persons secretly,

11. Shall not his dread trouble you, and fear from him come upon you?

12. And your glory shall be like ashes, and your body shall be dust.

13. Be ye silent that I may speak, and rest from mine anger,

14. And I will place my life in my hand.

15. If he who is powerful slay me, since he has begun, shall I not speak, and plead before him ?

16. And this shall be to me for salvation ; for deceit shall not enter before him.

17. Hear, hear ye my words, for I will speak, and you shall hear.

18. Behold I am near to my judgment : I know that I shall appear just.

19. For who is he that shall contend with me, that I should now be silent, and fail ?

20. But yield to me in all things : then I will not hide myself from thy face.

21. Take thine hand from me : and let not thy fear trouble me.

22. Then shalt thou call and I also will answer thee : or thou shalt speak, and I will respond to thee.

23. How many are my sins and my transgressions ? teach me what they are.

24. Wherefore hidest thou thyself from me, and hast reputed me as one departing ?

25. Wilt thou be afraid, as at a leaf which the wind shaketh ? or hast thou opposed thyself to me as to grass, which the wind taketh away ?

26. For thou hast written evil things against me, and thou hast brought upon me the sins of my youth.

27. And thou hast placed my foot in a pit* ; and thou hast watched all my works, and hast penetrated to the roots of my foot.

1. FOR man born of a woman is short lived and full of wrath.

2. Or he is as a flower which has flourished and fallen; and he fleeth as a shadow, and continueth not.

3. Hast thou not also taken account with him, and hast caused him to come into judgment before thee?

4. For who shall be pure from uncleanness? not even one;

5. If his life is but one day upon the earth: and his months are numbered to him: thou hast appointed him for a time, and he shall not pass over it.

6. Depart from him that he may rest himself and proceed prosperously in his life as a hireling.

7. For there is hope of a tree: for if it should be cut down it will sprout again, and its bud shall not fail.

8. For though its root hath increased in the earth, and its trunk* dies in a rock;

9. It will bud from the scent of water, and will produce fruit, as if newly planted.

10. But when man has died he has departed; and when a man has fallen, he is no more.

11. For in time the sea fails, and when a river hath wasted away, it is dried up.

12. But when a man hath laid down in death, he will not rise until the heaven be dissolved†, and they shall not awake out of their sleep.

13. For O that thou wouldest keep me in the grave, and wouldest hide me until thy wrath be past, and that thou wouldest appoint me a time in which thou wouldest visit me !

14. For if a man die shall he live again, having expended the days of his life? I will wait till I am made again.

15. Then thou wilt call, and I will answer thee: but do not thou reject the works of thy hands.

16. But thou hast numbered all my works: and not any of my sins shall escape thee.

17. And thou hast sealed my transgressions in a bag, and hast discovered those things in which I have unwillingly transgressed.

18. And indeed a moving mountain will fall, and a rock will become old out of its place.

19. Waters wear the stones, and waters overwhelm the highest parts of the dust of the earth: and thou destroyest the patience of man.

20. Thou didst help him, and he has gone to an end: thou didst set thy face against him, and hast sent him away.

* Read ⲧⲉⲥⲡⲉⲕⲓ, the Arabic is بطن, his belly.

2. Will a wise man give an answer of the understanding of the spirit? for he hath filled his belly with pain,

3. Reasoning with words not meet, and with words in which is no profit.

4. For thou also hast cast off his fear, and hast accomplished words of this kind before the Lord.

5. Thou art guilty for the words of thy mouth; and thou hast not discerned the words of the powerful.

6. Thy mouth convicteth thee, and not I: and thy lips witness against thee.

7. For what! wert thou born before men? or wert thou formed before the mountains?

8. Or hast thou heard the command of the Lord? and has wisdom come to thee only?

9. For what knowest thou, and we know it not? or what understandest thou more than we?

10. For art thou old, and art thou ancient among us? art thou more weighed down with days than thy father?

11. Thou hast been scourged but a little for thy sins: thou hast spoken exceeding great things.

12. What hath thine heart meditated? or what have thine eyes looked at,

13. That thou hast uttered wrath before the Lord, and hast brought such words out of thy mouth?

14. For who is man that he should be blameless? or he who is born of a woman, that he should be just?

15. Behold he has no confidence in his saints; and the heaven is not clean in his sight;

16. How much more is man abominable and impure, drinking iniquity as a draught?

17. I will shew thee, therefore hearken to me; the things which I have seen I will tell to thee;

18. Things which wise men have spoken, and their fathers have not hid.

19. Unto them alone the earth was given, and no stranger came upon them.

20. All the life of the ungodly has been spent in care, and the years granted to an oppressor are hidden.

21. And his terror has been in his ears: and when he thought he was at peace, his overthrow came.

22. And let him not believe that he shall flee from darkness, for he hath already been given to the sword.*

23. And he hath been appointed for food for vultures; and he knows within himself that he is for destruction; and the day of darkness shall trouble him.

24. And distress and affliction shall take hold of him, as of a captain, being in the greatness of his fall.

25. For he has lifted up his hands against the Lord, and has exalted his neck against the Lord Almighty.

26. And he has run against him with insolence, on the thickness of the back of his shield.

27. He hath covered his face with his fat, and made fatness† upon his thighs.

28. He shall dwell in desolate cities, and shall enter into houses in which there is no inhabitant: and the things which they have collected, others shall take away.

29. Neither shall he be rich, nor shall his substance remain: he shall not cast a shadow upon the earth.

30. Neither shall he flee from darkness: that which shall spring up of his, the wind shall cause to wither away, and his flower shall fall off.

31. Let him not trust that he shall remain, for vanities shall come to him.

32. His hardness of heart* shall perish before the appointed time, and his eye shall not flourish.

33. And he shall be gathered as an unripe grape before the appointed time, and he shall fall as a flower of the olive.

34. For death is the witness of the ungodly, and fire shall burn the houses of the receivers of gifts.

35. And he shall conceive afflictions, and vanities shall proceed from him, and his belly shall produce deceit. -

4. I also will speak as ye do : if your soul were in the stead of mine,

5. Then I would rise up against you with words, and I would shake my head at you.

6. And strength should be in my mouth, and I would not spare the movement of my lips.

7. For if I could speak I should not fret for my wound : and if I should again be silent, what is the smallness of my anguish ?

8. But now he hath made me weary, and hath made me foolish, and putrid, and thou hast taken hold of me.

9. My falsehood hath been for a testimony, and hath risen up against me : it has answered against me before my face.

10. Having used anger he hath cast me down ; he hath gnashed with his teeth upon me : he hath brought upon me the arrows of his wrath : he hath been magnified upon me in the piercings* of his eyes.

11. He hath smitten me down upon my knees with a sharp spear ; they have run upon me with one accord.

12. For the Lord hath delivered me into the hands of the unrighteous ; he hath cast me out upon the ungodly.

13. When I was at peace he cast me off : he took hold of the hair of my head and plucked it out : he set me up as a mark.

14. They surrounded me with spears, casting them in my reins, for they spared not : they poured out my gall upon the earth.

1. JOB answered and said,

2. How long will ye vex my soul, and destroy me with words? for only know that the Lord hath done thus to me.

3. Ye speak against me; and ye are not ashamed before me; and ye press upon me.

4. Grant that I have in truth erred, (and the error remains with me,) that I have spoken words which it was not meet to speak; and my words err, and I have not spoken them in their season;

5. Why do ye magnify yourselves against me; ye are hard upon me with reproach.

6. Know then that it is the Lord who hath troubled me, and hath raised his defence against me.

7. Behold, I shall laugh at reproach, and will not speak: I cry out and there is nothing.

8. I am fenced round about and cannot pass: darkness is put before my face.

9. And I am stripped of my glory, and he has taken my crown from my head.

10. And he has destroyed me by those who are

7. For when he shall think that he is established, then he shall perish for ever: they that knew him shall say, where is he?

8. As a dream which has fled away, he shall not be found; and he shall fly away as a vision of the night.

9. The eye has looked upon him and shall not again see him; and his place shall not see him.

10. Inferiors to him shall destroy his children, and his hands shall afflict with sorrows.

11. His bones have been filled with the sin of his youth, and it shall lie down with him in the dust.

12. If evil hath been sweet in his mouth, and he will hide it under his tongue;

13. If he will not spare it, neither will he leave it; he will draw it into the midst of his throat:

14. But it shall not be able to help him; the gall of asps is in his belly.

15. His riches which have been collected unjustly, shall be disgorged: a messenger shall drag him out of his house.

16. And he shall be nourished with the wrath of dragons; and the tongue of a serpent shall slay him.

17. He shall not see the milk of the pastures, neither the places of honey and butter.

18. And he has laboured unprofitably and in vain for wealth: he shall not taste of it, as a lean thing, which cannot be eaten, neither can it be swallowed.

19. For he hath troubled many helpless in their houses, and hath spoiled their habitation, and will not restore it.

20. There is no security in his possessions; he shall not be saved in his desire.

21. There is nothing left of his provisions; therefore his goods shall not flourish.

22. When he thinketh that he is complete, he shall be afflicted; and all distress shall come upon him,

23. So that when he would fill his belly, God will send upon him the fury of his wrath: he will send afflictions upon him.

24. And he shall not be delivered from the power of the sword*; the bow of brass shall wound him.

25. And the arrow shall pass through his body; and the stars shall shine† in his habitation, and fears shall come upon him.

26. And fire unquenchable shall consume him; he who cometh upon him, shall burn his house.

27. And the heaven shall reveal his iniquities, and the earth shall rise up against him.

28. Destruction shall draw his house to an end; and a day of wrath shall come upon him.

29. This is the portion of an ungodly man from the Lord, and the possession of his goods from him who is the overseer of all things.

CHAP. XXI.

1. JOB answered and said,

2. Hear ye, hear ye my words, that my consolation may not be from you.

---

* Coptic, from the hand of the iron.

† Coptic, shall go.

3. Lift me up and I will speak, then ye will not deride me.

4. What, then! is my reproof of man? or why should I not be angry?

5. Look upon me and be astonished, and put your hand upon your cheek.

6. For when I remember, I am troubled, and pains take hold of my flesh.

7. Wherefore do the ungodly live, and have grown old in riches?

8. Their fruit is according to the desire of their soul, and their children are before their eyes.

9. Their houses are tranquil, and there is not anywhere any fear, and there is not a scourge upon them from the Lord.

10. Their cow hath not brought forth before the time, and that which is with young of theirs has been safe, and has not miscarried.

11. And they remain as flocks for ever, and their children play with one another, taking up their psalteries and harps;

12. And they rejoice at the voice of a song.

13. And they have consumed their life in their goods, and they have slept in the rest of the grave.

14. The Lord saith, depart from me; I desire not to know thy ways.

16. For their goods were in their hands, but he regards not the works of the ungodly.

17. Nevertheless, the lamp of the ungodly shall be extinguished, and destruction shall come upon them, and pains of wrath shall take hold of them.

18. And they shall be as chaff before the wind, or as dust which a whirlwind taketh away.

19. Their goods shall fail to supply their children : God shall recompense him to his face*, and he shall know it.

20. His eye shall see his destruction from the Lord,

21. For his desire is with him in his house, and the number of his months has been cut off.

22. Is it not the Lord who giveth understanding and knowledge ? and he who judgeth murders ?

23. And one† shall die in the strength of his foolishness, and in full health, and prosperous.

24. And his intestines are full of fat, and his marrow is diffused in every part.

25. And another‡ dies in the bitterness of his soul ; he shall not eat any thing good.

26. But they lie down in the earth together, and corruption covers them.

27. And so I know you, that ye have rashly set upon me.

28. Wherefore ye will say, where is the house of the prince ? and where is the covering of the tabernacles of the ungodly ?

29. Ask those who go by the ways, and their tokens have not made them strangers.

30. For the ungodly is borne to the day of destruction : they shall be conducted to the day of his wrath.

CHAP. XXII.

1. ELIPHAZ the Thæmanite answered and said,

2. Is it not the Lord who teacheth understanding and knowledge?

3. For what matters it to the Lord, if thou art blameless in thy works? or what is thy gain that thou shouldst lay open thy way to him?

4. Or if he reprove thee taking account of thee, will he also enter into judgment with thee?

5. Is not thy wickedness great, and are not thy sins innumerable?

6. Thou hast taken a pledge of thy brethren for nothing, and thou hast taken away the clothing of the naked.

7. Neither hast thou given a drink of water to the thirsty, but thou hast defrauded the hungry of their bread.

8. And thou hast accepted the persons of some*; and thou hast caused some to be poor upon the earth.

---

* Coptic, thou hast admired the face of some.

CHAP. XXIV.

1. WHY have the times been hidden from the Lord?

2. And the ungodly have been beyond their bounds; they have stolen away their flocks with its shepherd.

3. And they have taken away the ass of the fatherless, and have taken the widow's ox for a pledge.

4. They have caused the weak to turn aside from the way of justice, and the meek of the earth have hidden themselves together.

5. They have been like the asses in the field; they have gone out in their order upon them.

6. They have reaped a field which was not their own, before the time; and the weak have laboured in the vineyards of the ungodly without wages, and without good.

7. They have caused many naked to sleep without clothing, and they have taken away the covering of their persons.

8. And they are wet with the drops of the mountains: they covered themselves with the rock because they had no shelter.

9. They have carried off the fatherless from the bed, and have humbled him who hath fallen.

10. And they have caused others to sleep without clothing unjustly, and they have taken away the bread of the hungry.

11. They have laid wait unrighteously in narrow places, and the way of righteousness they have not known.

12. The poor they have cast out of their cities, and

13. Why then hath he not visited these dwelling upon the earth? and they understood not the way of righteousness, and they knew it not; neither have they walked in the paths thereof.

14. But he who knew their works delivered them into darkness: and in the night he will be as a thief.

15. And the eye of an adulterer hath kept him in the darkness, saying no eye shall see me, and he hath put upon me a covering of the face.

16. They have dug through houses in the dark, which they marked for themselves in the day: they know not the light of the morning;

17. It is as the shadow of death: and it shall be so to them together.

18. He is swift upon the face of the water: their portion shall be cursed upon the earth; and their plants shall be manifest, being withered upon the ground:

19. For they have violently taken away the sheaves of the fatherless.

20. Then his sin hath been remembered, and he disappeared as the vapour of dew: and the things which he has done shall be recompensed to him, and every unrighteous person shall be broken as useless wood.

21. They have not done good to her who is barren, and they have had no pity on him without a wife.

22. For in wrath he hath cast down the feeble:

23. And when he is sick let him not hope that he shall be healed : but he shall fall in his sickness :

24. For his exaltation hath afflicted many ; but he hath withered as a mallow in the heat, or as an ear of corn which hath fallen alone from the stalk.

25. If not, who is he that hath said he hath spoken falsely, and hath rejected my words saying they are nothing ?

2. For what is the beginning, but fear of him who hath made all things in the highest ?

3. Therefore let no one think the deceitful shall continue : and who are they upon whom a snare shall not come from him ?

4. For how shall man be just before the Lord ? or who that is born of a woman shall purify himself ?

5. If he gives a command to the moon, then it shineth not ; and the stars are not pure before him.

6. Then how much more is man not pure, and the son of man who is as a worm ?

CHAP. XXVI.

1. JOB answered and said,

2. To whom hast thou united thyself, or whom wouldest thou assist?

3. Is it not he who hath all wisdom? or who is it that thou wouldest follow? is it not he who hath much strength?

4. To whom hast thou spoken words? and whose is the breath that cometh forth from thee?

5. Shall giants be born from under water, and the inhabitants thereof? *

6. For hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

7. He stretcheth out the north upon nothing, and he hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8. He bindeth up water in his clouds, and the cloud is not rent by it.

9. He holdeth back the face of his throne, stretching out his cloud upon it.

10. He hath imposed a command upon the face of the water, until the end of the light and darkness.

11. The pillars of heaven have departed and were astonished at his rebuke.

12. He hath made the sea calm by his power, and by his wisdom the whale hath been overthrown.

13. And the bars of heaven fear him, and by a command he hath slain the apostate dragon.

14. Behold these are parts of his way; and we will hearken to him upon an intimation† of a word: but

CHAP. XXVII.

1. FURTHER, Job continued and said in the introduction,

2. The Lord liveth, who hath judged me thus ; and the Almighty, who hath passed sentence on my soul ;

3. As long as my breath is in me, and the holy spirit still is in my nostrils,

4. My lips shall not speak evil words, neither shall my soul meditate unrighteous things.

5. Far be it from me that I should declare you just : for till I die I will not put away my innocence from me.

6. But I will confide in my justification, and will not keep silence : for I know not of myself that I have done anything unjustly.

7. But rather my enemies shall be as the overthrow of the ungodly, and they who rise up against me as the destruction of transgressors.

8. For what is the hope of the ungodly, that he retains it ? If he confides in the Lord, shall he indeed be saved ?

9. Or will the Lord hear his prayer ?

10. Will he find any confidence before him ? or when he calls upon him will he hear him ?

11. But I will make known to you what are those things in the hands of the Lord : and I will not lie in those things which the Almighty hath.

12. Behold, ye all know that vain things shall come out of those who are vain.

13. This is the portion of ungodly men from the Lord, and the possession of the powerful shall come upon them from the Lord, and by the hand of the Almighty.

14. If his children have multiplied they shall be for slaughter: and if they have become strong, they shall beg.

15. And they who remain of him shall die the death, and no man shall pity their widows.

16. If they have collected silver as dust, and have prepared gold as clay;

17. All these things shall the just obtain, and domestics shall possess his wealth.

18. And his house shall be like moths, and as spiders' webs.

19. And the rich man shall lie down, he shall not increase it: he hath opened his eyes, and he is not.

20. Pains have entered into him as water, and in the night darkness hath taken him away.

21. A burning wind shall take him away, and he shall depart, and it shall drive him from his place.

22. God shall cast trouble upon him, and he will not spare: he would fain flee* out of his hands.

23. He shall clap his hands over them, and shall draw him out of his place.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1. FOR there is a place for the silver in which it is wrought, and a place for the gold where it is cast.

2. For indeed iron is made out of the earth, and brass is wrought as stone.

3. For he hath placed in order the darkness, and he searcheth out every limit: light and darkness are in the shadow of death.

4. There is a cutting off of the torrent by the dust: they who forget the men of truth, are weakened by men.

5. As for the earth, bread shall come out of it: under it has been turned up as it were fire.

6. Her stones are the place of the sapphire: and the dust thereof is their gold.

7. There is a path, the fowl hath not known it, neither hath the eye of the vulture seen it:

8. The sons of the proud have not trodden upon it; a lion has not passed over it.

9. He hath stretched forth his hand on the sharp stone; and overturned the mountains from their foundations:

10. And he hath divided the power of the rivers, and mine eye hath seen every precious thing.

11. And he hath revealed the depths of the rivers, and hath manifested his power to the light.

12. But whence hath wisdom been found? and what is the place of knowledge?

13. A man hath not known its way, neither has it been found among men.

14. The deep said, it is not in me; and the sea said, it is not with me.

15. He shall not give pure gold* in exchange for it.

16. It cannot be compared with the gold of Sophir, with the precious work, and sapphire.

17. Gold and crystal cannot be equal to it, and its exchange shall not be vessels of gold.

18. Lofty and precious things also shall not be remembered: and let wisdom be accounted above the most precious things.

19. The topaz of Ethiopia shall not be equal to it; it shall not be compared with pure gold.

20. Whence then is wisdom found? and of what kind is the way of understanding?

21. It is concealed from every man, and hath been hidden from the fowls of heaven.

22. But destruction and death said, we have heard the fame of it.

23. The Lord hath ordered the way of it, and he knoweth the place of it.

24. For he who seeth all things which are under heaven, knoweth all the things which are upon the earth, which he hath made.

25. The measures of the just, and the bounds of the waters.

* Fine, pure gold appears to be the meaning of the word ⲟⲩⲧⲁⲧⲁⲩⲟ, here. My Arabic translation of the Coptic extends no further than Chap. xix. 22; but the common Arabic version has ذهب, gold.

* The Arabic word used for ὐλῶδης is جبار, powerful.
The Hebrew is יְהוָה, omnipotent, all-sufficient.

26. When he made them, he thus saw them, and numbered them.

27. Then he saw it, and declared concerning it: he prepared it, and investigated it.

28. And he said to man, behold godliness is wisdom; and a departure from evil is understanding.

CHAP. XXIX.

1. JOB continued and said in the exordium,

2. Who will give me other mouths as in the former days, in which God preserved me?

3. When his lamp shone above my head; when by his light I walked in darkness.

4. When I was enlarged in my ways, when the Lord visited my house.

5. When I was exceeding powerful, and my children were about me.

6. When my ways flowed with butter, and my mountains overflowed with milk.

7. When I went out early in my city, and my seat was placed in its streets.

8. When the young men saw me, they hid themselves; and all the old men stood up.

9. And the powerful men ceased speaking, and put their finger upon their mouth.

10. And they who heard me blessed me, and their tongue clave to their throat.

11. For the ear heard, and blessed me in my presence : the eye saw me, and turned aside to me.

12. For I delivered the poor from the hand of the strong, and helped the fatherless who had no helper.

13. And the blessing of one ready to perish came upon me ; and the mouth of the widow blessed me.

14. And I put on righteousness, and I clothed me with judgment like a cloak.

15. I was an eye to the blind, and I was a foot to the lame.

16. I was a father to the feeble ; and the cause which I knew not I investigated.

17. And I brake the teeth of the ungodly ; and I brought out from between their teeth, those whom they had spoiled.

18. And I said, I shall grow old in my age as the trunc of a palm tree ; and I shall live for a long time.

19. My root hath appeared upon the water, and the dew will be on my crop.

20. My glory is vain with me, and my bow hath departed from my hand.

21. When they heard me, they gave heed, and were silent at my counsel.

22. Neither did they add to my word ; but they rejoiced when I spake with them.

23. As the thirsty earth waiteth for the rain, so also they waited for my word.

24. If I were to laugh at them, they would not believe it; and the light has not fallen from my face.

25. I chose out their way, and sat, being chief, and I dwelt as a king among warriors, as comforting those mourning.

CHAP. XXX.

1. BUT now the youngest have derided me, and now they reprove me in their turn, whose fathers I despised; whom I put, because they are worthy, with the dogs of my flocks.

2. Yea why had I the strength of their hands? in whom the completion of vigour had perished?

3. In want and famine they were childless, fleeing but lately* from drought, distress, and misery.

4. Who seek salt herbs on a sounding place, whose food was salt herbs; reprobate concerning evil, they want every good thing: they turned up the roots of wood on account of the great famine.

5. Thieves have risen up against me,

6. Whose houses were the caves of the rocks,

7. Crying out among well echoing places; they dwelt among wild shrubs.

8. They are sons of fools, whose name is vile, and whose glory hath been extinguished upon the earth.

9. But now I am as a harp to them, and I am a by-word with them.

the things which he hath done, and he will find a man in his ways.

12. And thinkest thou that the Lord will do injustice; or will the Almighty who made the earth, disturb the earth?

13. Who is he who made the things under heaven, and all things which are therein?

14. If he wished to restrain, and retain the spirit with himself,

15. All flesh would die together; and every man would return to the earth, from which he was formed.

16. And if thou wouldst not be chastised, hear these things, hearken to the voice of my words.

17. And if thou hatest iniquities, and destroyest the wicked, thou art for ever just.

18. He is an ungodly man who says to a king, thou hast transgressed, and to princes, he is an ungodly one.

19. Who hath not revered an honourable one, neither knoweth to give honour to the powerful, and to respect their persons.*

20. But vanities shall take hold of them, until they cry out, and beseech a man; for they have done iniquity, they have defrauded the poor.

21. For he is a surveyor of the works of men, and not any thing is hid from him of those things which they do.

22. Neither shall those who do iniquity have a place in which to hide themselves.

24. For the Lord seeth every one, he comprehends

CHAP. XXXV.

1. ELIUS spake, and said,

2. What is it that thou thus thinkest in the cause ?
who art thou that hast said before the Lord, I am just ?
or shalt say, what shall I do, if I have sinned ?

4. I will answer thee, and thy three friends.

5. Look up to the heaven and see ; and consider the clouds, how much they are higher than thou.

6. If thou hast sinned, what canst thou do ? if thou hast done many iniquities, what wilt thou be able to perform ?

7. If* therefore thou art just, what canst thou give him ? or what shall he receive of thy hands ?

8. Thy ungodliness may be hurtful to a man like thee, and thy righteousness may be good to a son of man.

9. They who are oppressed of the multitude cry out ; because of the arm of many they cry out.

10. And no one said, where is God who made me, who appoints the watches of the night ;

11. Who hath distinguished us from the beasts of the earth, and from the fowls of heaven ?

12. There they cry, and he will not hear them, even for the reproach of evil men.

13. For the Lord will not look upon iniquities, for he is the Almighty.

14. He sees those who fulfil lawless things, and he will save me : and do thou plead before him, if

---

* Coptic, since.

thou canst praise him, as it becomes thee even now.

15. He is not visiting in his wrath, and he hath not noticed any trespass severely.

16. Yet Job hath opened his mouth in vain, he hath made his words heavy in ignorance.

CHAP. XXXVI.

1. ELIUS still continued, and said,

2. Wait for me a little, that I may teach thee : for yet there is a word in me.

3. I will receive my knowledge from afar, and from my works ;

4. And deal truly with just things, and unjust words thou shalt not understand unjustly.

5. Know that the Lord will not cast off the innocent ; he is mighty in his strength.

6. He will not revive the hearts of the ungodly ; and he will give judgment to the poor.

7. He will not take away his eyes from the righteous, and he will cause them to sit on a throne with kings in victory, and they shall be exalted.

8. They that are bound in fetters, shall be holden in cords of poverty.

9. And he shall show them their works, and their transgressions, for they will prevail.

10. But he will hearken to the righteous : and he hath said that they shall turn from unrighteousness.

* Read ἡογасθeннс, weak.

11. If they should hearken and serve him, they shall complete their days in prosperity, and their years in wisdom.

12. But he will not deliver the ungodly; because they are unwilling to know the Lord, and because when they have been reproved they are disobedient.

13. And the hypocrites in heart shall be appointed to wrath: they will not cry out, because he hath bound them.

14. Now therefore their soul shall fail in their youth, and messengers shall destroy their life;

15. Because they afflicted the weak and helpless: and he will bring forth the judgment of the meek.

16. And he hath beguiled thee again out of the mouth of the enemy:

17. There is a deep chasm, and a pouring stream beneath it; thy table came down beneath thee, it is full of fatness, and the just shall not fail in the judgment.

18. But wrath shall be upon the ungodly, for the ungodliness of the gifts which they have received for injustice.

19. Let not thy heart turn aside thy judgment from the prayer of the feeble, being in distress.

20. And draw not forth all those who are strong in might by night, that the people should go up instead of them.

21. But take heed, and do not unjust things: for

22. Behold, the Powerful one shall prevail by strength: for who is powerful as he is?

23. Or who is he who shall examine his works? or who can say that he hath done unjust things?

24. Remember that his works are greater than those which men have ruled over.

25. Every man hath seen in himself, that all those who are wounded are mortal.

26. Behold the Mighty one is great, we shall not know the number of his ways, they are infinite.

27. And the drops of rain are numbered by him, and they shall be poured out in rain from a cloud.

28. The ancient heavens shall be destroyed; and he hath caused the clouds to overshadow innumerable men.

29. And if the extension of the clouds is equal to the extent of his tabernacle;

30. Behold he stretcheth it out over it, or giveth it for a covering and hath covered the bottom* of the sea.

31. For by them he hath judged the people: he will give food to him who hath strength.

32. His hands have concealed the light, and he hath commanded the cloud which interposeth, concerning it.

33. The Lord will make known to his friend concerning the portion of the Lord: and concerning the portion for unrighteousness.

CHAP. XXXVII.

1. AND at this also his heart hath been troubled, and removed out of its place.

2. Hear a voice in the anger and wrath of the Lord, and a meditation shall come out of his mouth.

3. His dominion is under the whole heaven, and his light is upon the ends* of the earth.

4. After him shall be a cry with a voice ; he shall thunder with the voice of his reproach †, and he will not change them, for thou shalt hear his voice.

5. The Mighty one shall thunder wonderfully with his voice : he hath appointed the time of the cattle, and they know the order of their fold : thy understanding is not astonished at all these things, neither shall the heart be changed in thy body : for he hath done great things which we know not ;

6. He hath commanded the snow that it should be upon the earth, and the storm of the showers of his power.

7. He hath sealed up every man in his hand, that all men may know their weakness.

8. And the wild beasts go in under the cover, and rest in their dens.

9. Troubles come out of the secret chambers, and the cold cometh from the high mountains.

10. And by the breath of the Mighty one he will give frost ; and he guides the water as he willeth.

13. And these things have been revealed by him upon the earth, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy, that he may find it. And these things are appointed upon the earth by him.

14. Hearken, O Job ! stand still, and understand the power of the Lord.

15. We know that the Lord hath disposed his works, and hath made light out of darkness.

16. And he knoweth the divisions of the clouds, and wonderful are the desolations of the wicked.

17. But thy robe is warm, and there is quiet upon the land.

18. The ancient heavens are strong, they are established with him as an appearance upon a mirror.

19. Wherefore show me what we shall say to him, and we will cease making many words.

20. Is there a book, or a scribe standing near me, that I may stand and cause man to be silent ?

21. But all shall not see the light : yet it is manifest upon the ancient heavens, as that which he sendeth upon the clouds.

22. And the clouds from the north shine like gold : on all these great are the glory and honour of the Almighty ;

CHAP. XXXVIII.

1. AFTER Elius had ceased speaking, the Lord said to Job from the whirlwind and cloud, saying;

2. Who is this that hides counsel from me, and keepeth words in his heart, and thinketh that he shall hide them from me?

3. Gird up thy loins like a strong man: and I will ask thee, and do thou answer me.

4. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? make known to me, if thou knowest by understanding,

5. Who hath placed the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath brought a measuring line upon it?

6. On what have its rings been secured? and who is he who hath laid the corner stone upon it?

7. When the stars were made, all the angels praised him with a loud voice.

8. And the sea was shut up with gates, when it was troubled, coming out of its mother's womb.

9. And I placed a cloud for a covering to it, and I involved it in a cloud of mist.

10. I have set bounds to it; I have surrounded it with bars and gates.

11. And I said to it, hitherto shalt thou come, and thou shalt not go beyond, but thy waves shall be broken within thee.

12. Wert thou there when I created the light of the morning, and the morning star knew its order.

13. Taking hold of the extremity of the earth, and casting the ungodly out of it?

14. Hast thou taken earth of clay, and formed it a living creature, and placed him speaking upon the earth?

15. And hast thou taken away the light of the ungodly, and crushed the arm of the proud?

16. And hast thou come to the fountains of the sea and walked in the path of the deep?

17. Will the gates of death open to thee for fear; and will the door keepers of hell fear when they see thee?

18. Knowest thou the breadth of the earth under heaven? and show me how much it is:

19. And of what kind is the land in which the light dwells? and what is the place of darkness?

20. If thou couldest take me to their boundaries, and if thou knowest their paths;

21. Knowest thou indeed that thou wast born at that time, and the number of thy years is great?

22. Hast thou come to the treasures of the snow? and hast thou seen the treasures of the hail?

23. And is their store for thee against enemies, and the day of war and battle?

36. And who hath given to women the wisdom of weaving, and the skill of embroidery ?

37. And who is he that numbers the clouds in wisdom, and hath bowed the heaven to the earth ?

38. And it is spread out as dusty earth is spread abroad, and I have cemented it as a hewn stone to another stone.

39. And wilt thou hunt food for a lion ? or wilt thou satisfy the appetite * of a dragon ?

40. For they fear in their lair†, and they remain in the gates, lying in wait.

41. And who hath prepared food for the raven ? for its young ones cry to the Lord, wandering and seeking after their food.

CHAP. XXXIX.

1. Declare, if thou knowest, the time of bringing forth of the goat, and hind of the rock, and if thou hast observed the parturition pains of the hinds :

2. And if thou hast numbered their months of bringing forth, and if thou hast loosened their pains ?

3. And if thou hast nourished their young ones without fear ; and wilt thou dismiss their pains ?

4. And their young will break forth ; they will be multiplied in their offspring : their young will go forth, and will not return to them.

5. And who hath sent out the wild ass free ? and who hath loosened his bands ?

6. And I appointed the wilderness to him for a dwelling, and the salt place his habitations.

7. And he derides the great multitude of a city, and hears not the complaint of a collector of tribute.

8. He will visit the mountains for his pasture, and seeketh to eat the extremity of every thing green.

9. And will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or will he lie down at thy manger ?

10. And wilt thou bind his yoke with bands, or will he plough his furrows in the plain ?

11. And wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great ? or wilt thou confide to him thy works ?

12. And wilt thou believe that thou mayest commit to him those things which thou hast sown, or will he bring in thy seed to the threshing floor ?

13. The wing of the peacock would delight, if the stork and ostrich could comprehend it.

14. For the ostrich will leave her eggs on the earth, and will warm them in the dust,

15. And hath forgotten where she hath scattered them ; and the wild beasts of the field will tread upon them.

16. She hath caused her young to be more cruel than herself : she hath laboured in vain, without fear.

17. For God hath not communicated wisdom to her, and hath not given to her a portion in understanding.

18. And in the seasons she will exalt herself on high ; she will scorn the horse and his rider.

19. Hast thou given strength to the horse, and hast thou given terror to his neck ?

33. Job answered and said to the Lord,

34. Wherefore do I contend being admonished, even being reprov'd of the Lord: I hear such words, I who am nothing, what shall I answer to these things? I will put my hand upon my mouth.

35. I have spoken once; but I will not proceed a second time.

CHAP. XL.

1. AND the Lord answered yet, and spake to Job out of the cloud, saying,

2. Nay, but gird up thy loins as a strong man; and I will ask thee, and answer me.

3. Dost thou repel my judgment; and dost thou think that I would have mercy on thee otherwise than that thou appearest to be righteous?

4. Can thy arm contend against the Lord? or dost thou thunder with a voice like his?

5. Take to thee exaltation and power; and clothe thyself with glory and honour.

6. And send forth messengers in wrath; and humble all the insolent,

7. And extinguish the proud, and the ungodly will hide themselves immediately.

8. Let them corrupt together in the earth without; and fill their faces with shame; and let them hide themselves in the earth without together.

9. And I will confess that thy right hand is able to save.

10. But behold the wild beast* with thee ; he eateth grass like the oxen :

11. Behold his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.

12. He hath set up his tail like a cypress ; and his nerves are folded together.

13. His ribs are ribs of brass, and his back is as cast iron.

14. This is the first of the creation of the Lord, which he hath made, that the angels might sport with.

15. And when he hath gone upon a high mountain, he hath caused joy to the quadrupeds in the deep.†

16. He lieth under trees of every kind, by the papyrus, and reed, and sedge.

17. And the great trees overshadow him with branches, and so do the thick bushes ‡ of the field.

18. If there hath been a flood, he will not perceive it ; and he trusts that Jordan will rush up into his mouth.

19. Yet who will take him with his eye ; and ensnaring him, will pierce through his nose ?

21. Or wilt thou fasten a ring in his nose ? or wilt thou bore his lip with a clasp ?

22. And will he speak with thee in fear, and supplication, and softness ?

23. And will he establish a covenant with thee ? and will he be a servant to thee for ever ?

* The Hebrew is בְּהֵמָוִת, beasts, quadrupeds, not excluding those of the amphibious kind. Hence the word is considered by some to mean the Hyppopotamus in this chapter.

† The Hebrew is עֲמֻקָּה, field, which the Septuagint translates by τάπρασ, the most deep place.

‡ Coptic, branches.

CHAP. XLII.

1. JOB answered and said to the Lord,

2. I know that thou hast power in all things, and nothing is impossible with thee.

3. For who is he who hideth counsel from thee ? and indulgeth in words, and thinketh that it shall be hid from thee ? for who will tell me things which I knew not, great and wonderful things which I understood not ?

4. Hear me, O Lord, that I also may speak : I will ask thee, and do thou teach me.

5. I have heard of thee indeed before in a report of the ear ; but now mine eye hath seen thee ;

6. Therefore I have reproached myself, and have fainted : and I have accounted myself dust and ashes.

7. And it came to pass after Job had spoken all hese things, the Lord said to Elisaph the Thæmanite, Thou hast sinned, and thy two friends: for ye have not said any true word before me as my servant Job has.

N

8. Now take to you seven bullocks, and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and he shall offer a burnt offering for you, for I will only accept him: for but for him I would have destroyed you, for he have not spoken the truth against my servant Job.

9. Then Elisaph the Thæmanite, and Baldad the Sauchite, and Sophar the Minæan, went and did as the Lord said to them: and their sin was forgiven them on account of Job.

10. And the Lord exalted Job greatly, and when he prayed also for his three friends, he forgave them their sin. And the Lord gave Job double: whatever he had before, he gave double to him.

11. And all his brethren and his sisters heard of all that had happened to him, and they came to him, and so did every one who knew him from the first: and they ate and drank with him, and comforted him, and wondered at all that the Lord had brought upon him: and each one of them gave him a lamb of the flock, and four drachmas of gold at the same time.

12. And the Lord blessed the last days of Job more than his first days: and his cattle were fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

16. And Job lived after his affliction a hundred and seventy years: and all his years which he lived were two hundred and forty: and Job saw his sons, and his sons' sons, till the fourth generation.

17. And Job died, being an old man, and full of days: and it is written again concerning him that he will rise with those whom the Lord shall raise up.

This man hath been described* in the Syriac book† as having dwelt in the land of Ausis, on the borders of Idumea and Arabia: and his name before was Jobab; and he took an Arabian wife, and she bare him a son whose name was Enon. And his own father was Zara, who was of the sons of Esau, and his mother was Bozora, so that he was the fifth after Abraam. And these were the kings who reigned in Edom, the country which he also ruled over: the first was Balak the son of Beor, and the name of his city was Dennaba: after Balak, Jobab, who is called Job:

The answers which are alike in Job, are two. The answers of Job to Elisaph, are thirteen ; to Baldad, three ; to Sophar, two ; to Elius, five. The answers of God speaking with Job, are four : these are all.
